OU - THE STUDENT

In recording the events and activities of the school year all of our efforts have been directed toward making you the main characters in the story.

"Let the word go forth from this time and place, to friend and foe alike. . .

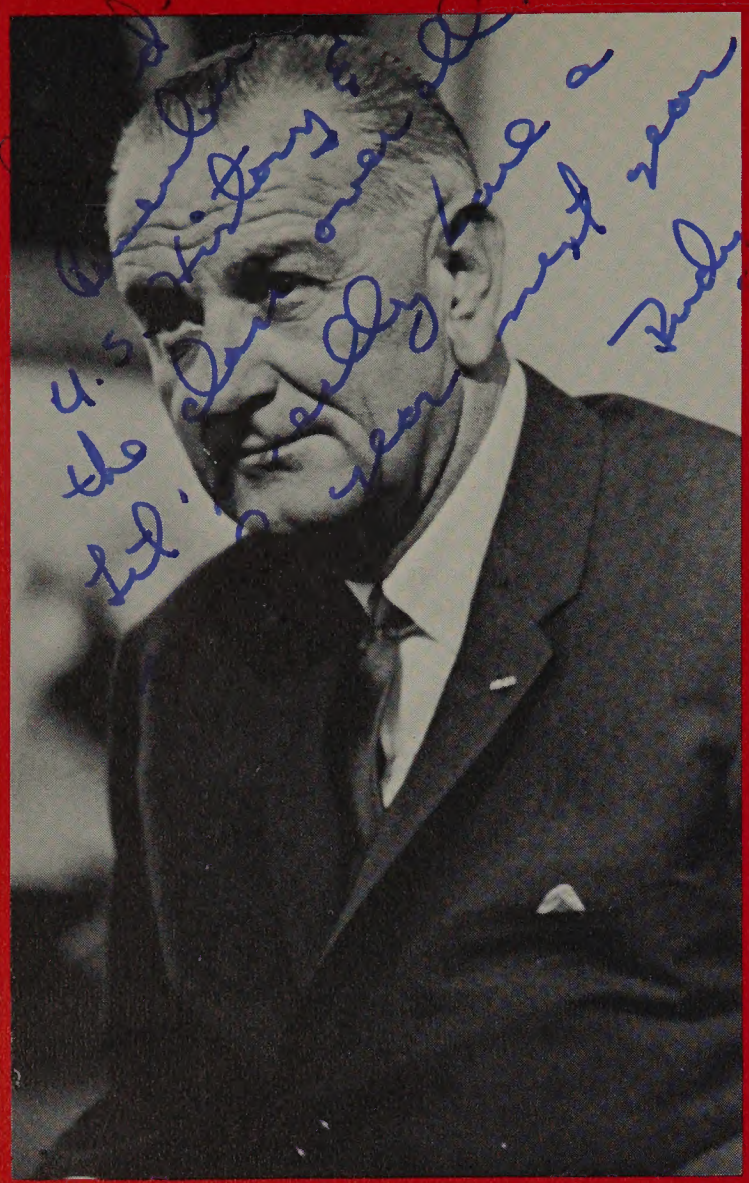
GRADUATING in a world of conflict -- with a nuclear cloud hovering over the future of all mankind and with many traditional values and notions being shaken by a changing technology and resultant new patterns of living and thought -- Troy's graduating class looks at the future, not with uncertainty and trepedation but with determination and integrity.

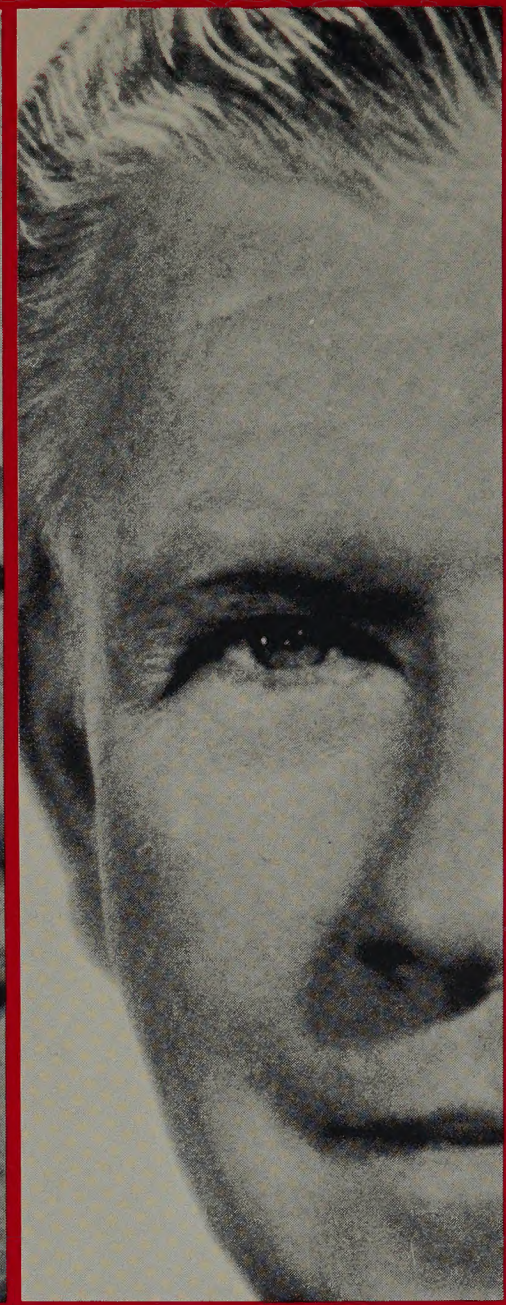
That the torch has been passed to a new generation of Americans. . ."

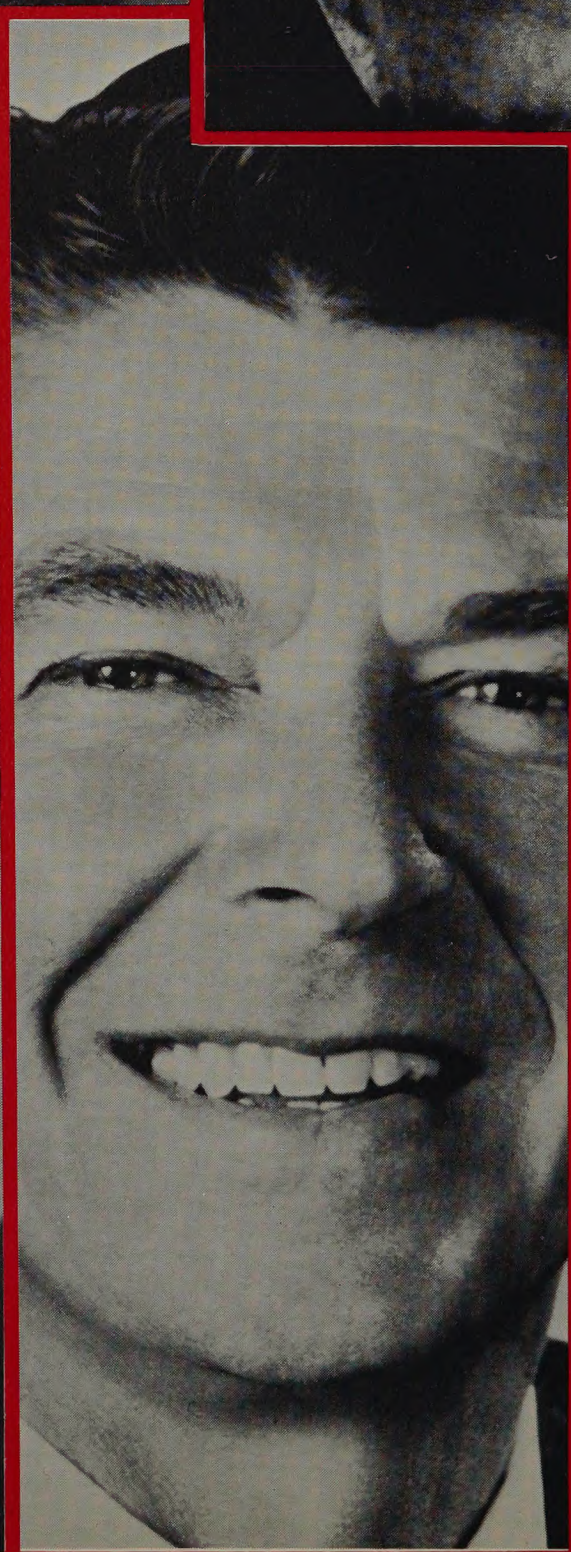
John F. Kennedy

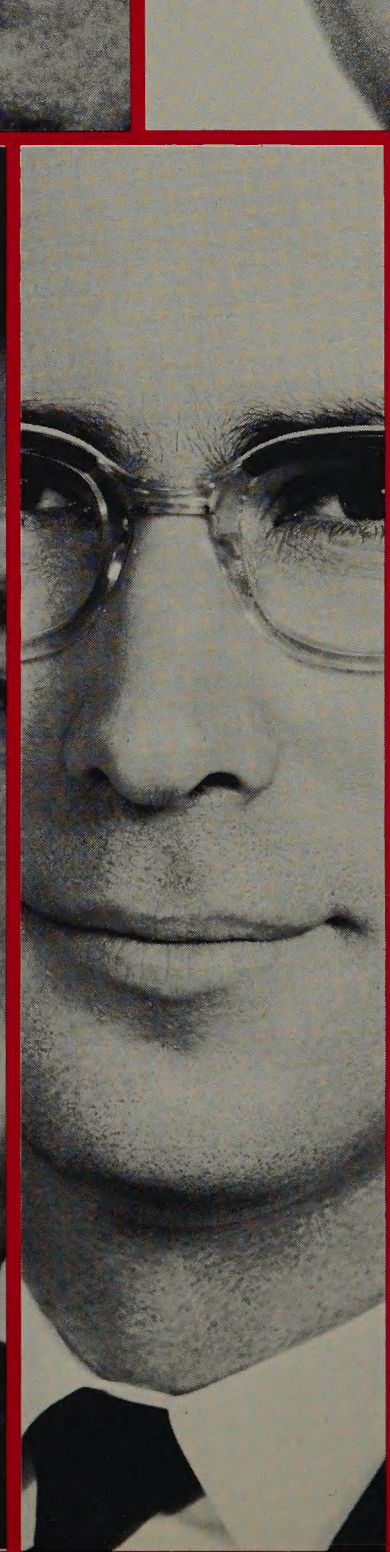
GRADUATING as individuals, striving constantly for perfection, each is unique with a unique role to fill. Graduating as a group, the emerging young adults represent a promise of achievements ensuring that our nation and our world will rise to the challenge of change.

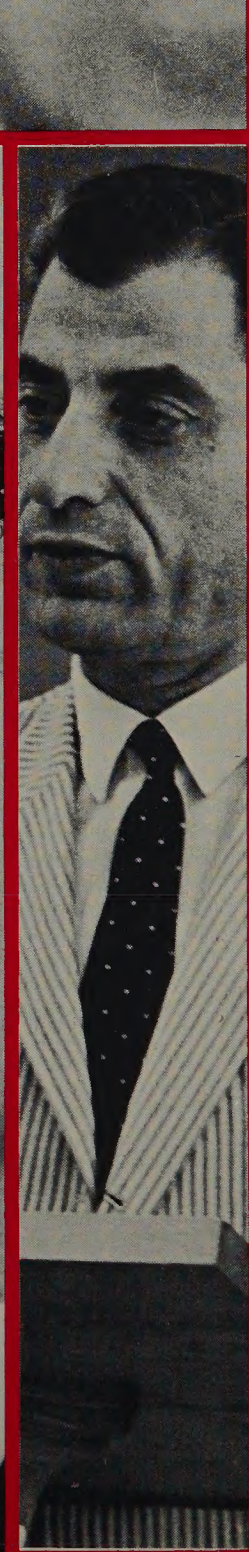
IT IS IN THAT SPIRIT THAT WE SALUTE THE CLASS OF 1968





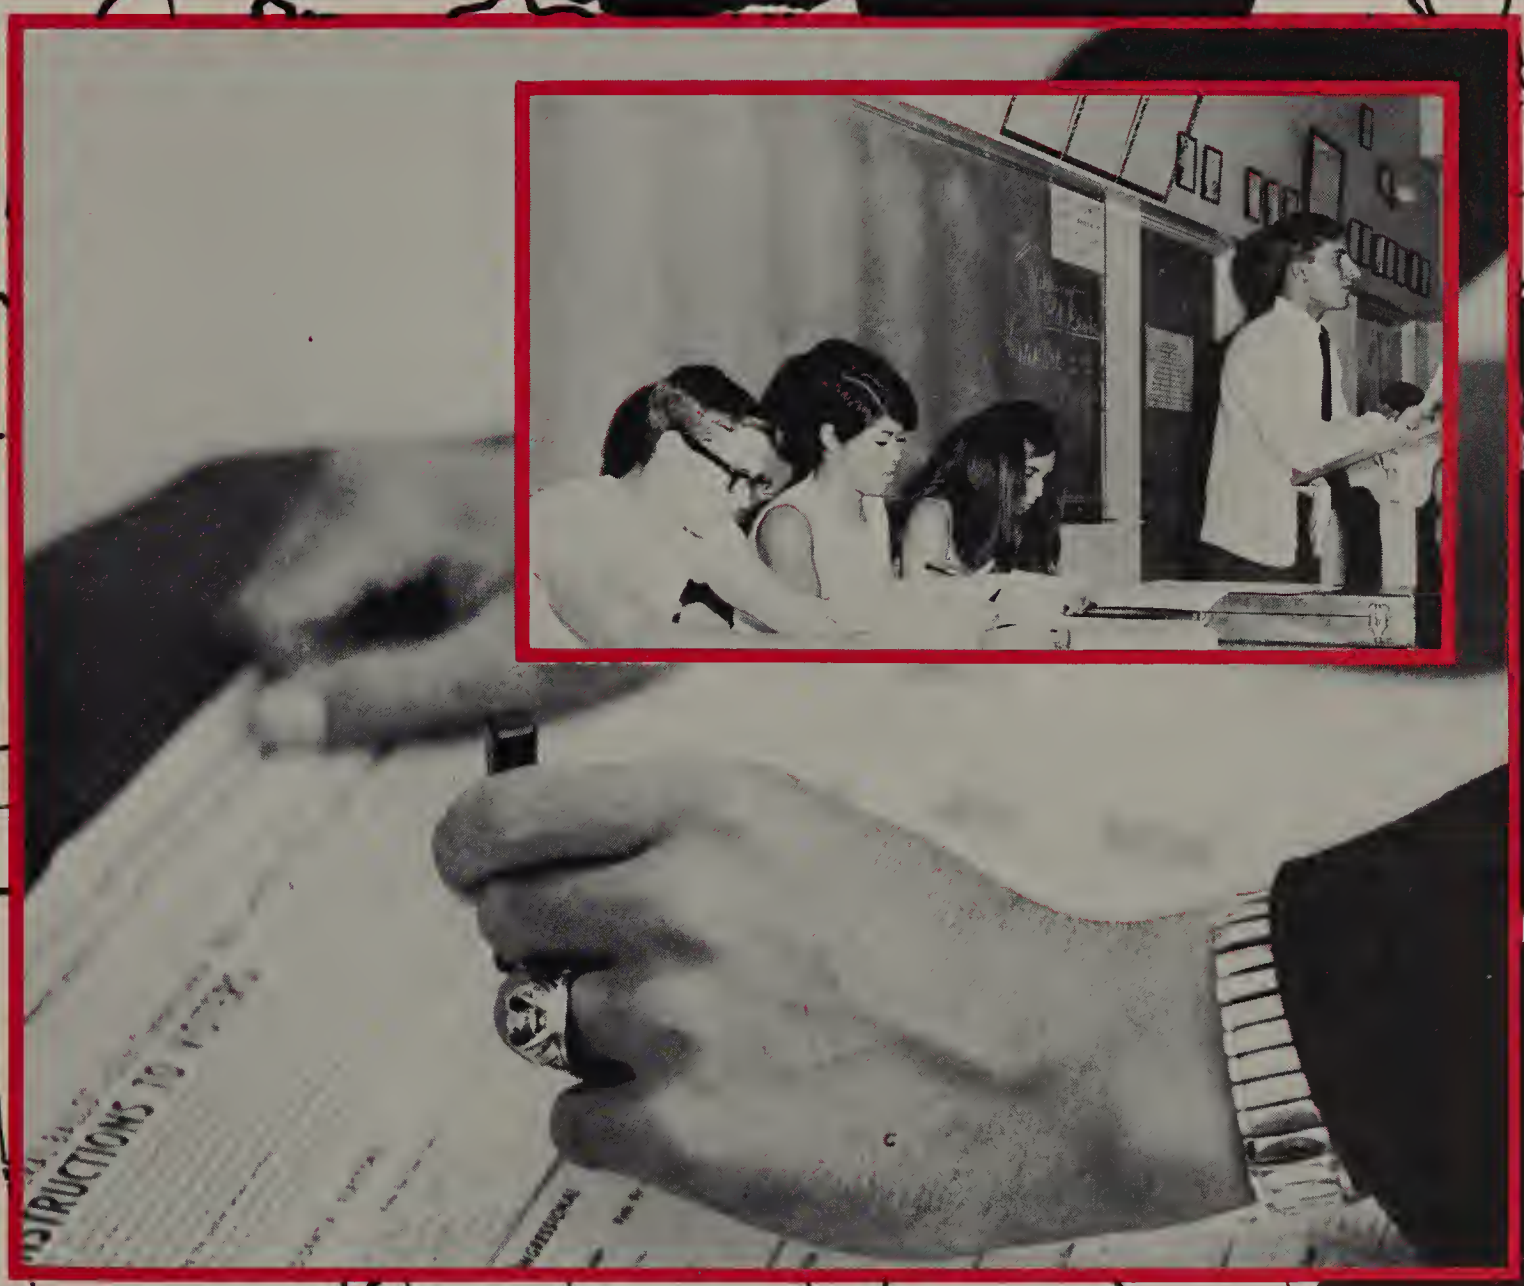






DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT

TROY TODAY THE NATION TOMORROW



Graduates of 1968 will actively participate in directing what the future will be like. They have in their hands the very shape and the excitement of the year 2000. This is not going to just happen. Dedicated leaders are needed. Campus 498 activities provide the crucible in which are developed the qualities of leadership necessary for shaping the social, economic, and political future of our community, our state, and our nation.

TROY EXTENDS HANDS ACROSS THE SEA

Foreign Students Welcomed

As Troy opened its doors for the school year, Charis Taylor, remembering the welcome she had received as a summer exchange student in Portugal, extened the warm Trojan hand of freindship to foreign exchange students Hans Martin Jungjohann of Germany and Urmilla Shinoy of India. All Troy watched as the always-amazing transformation began --- the transformation of a German boy and an Indian girl to TROJAN CITIZENS.

HANS MARTIN JUNGJOHANN

Through the auspices of the Youth for Understanding Program, Troy was host to 17-year-old, blue-eyed, brown-haired Hans Martin Jungjohann of Kiel, Germany. Hans' pursuit of academic excellence tempered by a wide-ranging interest in sports, particularly swimming, bowling and sailing, and (after attending a school for boys most of his life) all coed social activities blended well with the values held by his Trojan colleagues. So well, that Hans quickly became a part of the student body and, except for an interesting Germanic twist to certain English words, was soon indistinguishable from young men who were born and raised on Main Street or Third Avenue.

As he leaves us we know that the purpose of the exchange program was fulfilled. We saw not a "Neo-Nazi" but a "Neo-Trojan." He saw not the "Ugly Americans" but the young men and women who really make up our nation. May memories, both his and ours, keep these images bright tomorrow and tomorrow.

URMILA SHENOY

Whether wrapped in a diaphanous sari topped by contrasting choli or wearing a capri-like churidar and matching shift-like kurtha or attired in a mod mini skirt with patterned hose, American Field Service Exchange Student, 17-year-old, raven-haired, brown-eyed Urmila Shenoy of Hubli, Mysore State, India, brought onto the campus the very breath of the exotic East. To see her walk across the Senior Lawn was to have visions of the Taj Mahal. To hear her make a "current events report" in her flawless English was to hear the waters of the Ganges lapping against its banks. Mila, as we came to know her, explored the mores of our world --even tried the "strange" foods of the Americans, missing only the lowly hotdog which, because beef is taboo to the Hindu, she had to forgo. In this exploration, she developed an empathy for us and we, in turn, found understanding of her and her country.

In bidding our adieus to Mila, all Troy extends its hands in the traditional Victory "V" and wishes her well, saying: "Remember Troy, Mila, as we will always remember you."

3000 MILES

GIRLS' LEAGUE STRIVES TO UNITE

In the beginning, Zeus took a rose, a lily, a dove, a serpent, a little honey, a golden apple and a handful of clay. When he looked at the amalgam it was the Trojan coed. . .coeds who entwine and weave heavenly roses into Trojan life. Without them, what were Troy — a land without a sun.

With the advise and guidance of Advisors Mrs. Goodell and Mrs. Ketterer, Luanne Lindsay and the other officers and representatives developed a highly successful Girls' League program--a program which included the traditional Homecoming Mums Sale, two well-received fashion shows, a girls-only breakfast and the pre-Yule gala Girls' League Formal.

TROY'S CAPTIVATING MAIDENS

Advisor Marylou Goodell checked the elaborate decorations.

Advisor Carolyn Ketterer checked Santa Claus.

ROMANCE & ROSES IS THEME OF PRE-YULE FORMAL

The fifth annual Girls' League Formal was held December 15th in the elaborately decorated gymnasium. The popular Creations provided music for dancing. Appropriately, at 10:00 a fanfare announced the arrival of Santa Claus (Mr. Comer) to listen to the girls' wishes. What a lovely way to start the Christmas vacation!

And they came. . . and sat and talked. . . and, as the CREATIONS played, they danced. . .

and they danced. . . and, at the witching hour, discussed their problems with Santa.

FLAG CORPS--Twirling their way into competition for the first time this year were members of the Trojan Flag Corps. Sparklingly arrayed in the traditional red and black uniforms, they displayed skill and precision in all their routines. Led by Captains Dana Whitaker and Kitty Sutton and under the supervision of Miss Pauline Bachakes, the Corps performed at halftimes and in numerous parades including the Autumn, West Arcadia Invitational, Camarillo, and Maytime Band Reviews.

LETTERETTES--Announcing the arrival of Troy's band and specialty corps in every appearance were the Trojan Letterettes. Under the direction of Miss Pauline Bachakes and led by Captain Maureen McPherson, these high-stepping coeds proudly displayed the Trojan colors in such a manner that their very appearance evoked a welling of pride in the hearts of all Trojan viewers.

CAPTURES TROJAN HEARTS. . .

TROJANETTES STEP SMARTLY DOWN WEST ARCADIA PARADE ROUTE--Stepping out in new uniforms for the second consecutive year, the 1967-68 Trojanettes performed with skill and precision in numerous parades and half-time shows. Under the careful guidance and watchful eye of faculty advisor Pat Samples and the leadership of Captain Linda Bennett, the Corps marched its way through an outstanding performance to take THIRD PLACE honors at the West Arcadia Invitational Band Review. This was the first time the girls had placed in Arcadia and their second year of competition in this particular parade. Other competition parades included on the year's schedule were the Autumn Band Review and the Annual Maytime Band Review.

TROJANETTE COUNCIL: Janice Chachere (Treasurer), Rosa Montijo (Secretary), Vicki Jones (Historian), Glenda Williams (Corps Representative).

...and accolades are warranted. The marching band, directed by Michael Luzak and led by Drum Major Bruce Rosenberg, garnered THIRDS in the Autumn Band Review, the Parade of Champions, and Arcadia; a SECOND at Camarillo, where Bruce Rosenberg added a FIRST as military drum major; and FIRST at the All Western Band Review-the first time in Trojan history outpointing the always-excellent Hilltop Lancers. In addition, the percussion section added SWEEPSTAKES at Southwestern's Percussion Clinic with Jack Wride earning a SECOND in individual competition. Yes, it was truly a great year for Troy's marching musicians.

PEP BAND: Sending the strains of CONQUEST echoing across the high-arching Trojan gymnasium, the Pep Band, under the dynamic leadership of Vince Dahlen, played a large part in generating Troy's renowned FIGHTING SPIRIT.

STAGE BAND: From the soft strains of dinner music to the throbbing rhythms of pop melodies and the syncopation of the "oldies," the Stage Band contributed much to Troy's cultural and social environment.

The animated hands of Director Michael Luzak comes down to set the tempo, and the moving sound of voices lifted in song fills the halls of Troy. Truly, there is nothing more stirring and little more beautiful than the perfect blend of bass, tenor, alto, and soprano voices when trained to harmonize. All Trojans smile with pride at thoughts of the Choir's showing in District Workshop competition, the old-fashioned Christmas Sing and the always-to-be-remembered Spring Concert.

HOMECOMING - IT WAS TRULY

A time for remembering.
A time for laughter and a time for tears.
A time to relive the frantic work on colorful floats.
A time for hearts to pound proudly as Trojan warriors build a hard-fought victory.
A time to share the mounting expectation of five lovely Queen Candidates.
A time to share the wet-eyed, joyous surprise of a Queen hailed by shouting stands of loyal subjects.

No one, after sharing this emotion-packed tradition, can ever forget HOMECOMING 1967.

CALIFORNIA SCHOLARSHIP FEDERATION

The California Scholarship Federation (CSF), formed to honor students for outstanding scholastic achievement while contributing to school life through literary, dramatic, oratorical, athletic, or general student body service, is, in fact, a "lettermen's club for the academic elite".

Requirement for membership is ten scholarship points, of which five must be in academic subjects. In computing these points, an "A" counts two points and a "B" one point. Lesser grades do not contribute to the total.

Students who are members of the CSF for four semesters, one of which is during the senior year, are awarded Gold Lamp Pins and, at graduation, Life Certificates. In addition, the scholarship seal is impressed upon diplomas and school records.

DEDICATED SPECULUM STAFF

Under the guidance of advisor Mr. A. Pressutti and Co-Editors Luanne Lindsay and Glenda Williams, the 1968 Speculum Staff expended Herculean efforts in preparing a yearbook that would be worthy of the Trojan student body. Mr. Pressutti sums up this year's efforts by saying: "The pressure of meeting deadlines can be a traumatic experience that marks a person for life. Once one has gone through the ordeal, he becomes an avid clock and calendar watcher. At least this much we learned in our effort to produce a yearbook in which our Trojan colleagues can find real pride."

FUTURE TEACHERS CLUB

The Future Teachers Club is composed of students who have an interest in becoming school teachers at elementary to college level. The purpose of the organization is to promote this interest in teaching and to expose club members to activities which will enlighten them on various aspects of the teaching profession. Club activities are built around intra-club competition with the advanced players taking responsibility for helping less experienced players and novices at every opportunity.

Spirited Trojans, under the direction of Mr. Neveu and student manager Richard Markall, demonstrate the effectiveness of the county's only flashcard section. It is another Trojan first!

True Trojan spirit is exemplified by members of C.P.'s Key Club.

Sponsoring contests, holding poster-painting parties, and selling pep ribbons were only a few of the activities which helped to create the great spirit and enthusiasm which has become a tradition at Troy. TIGERS--EAGLES MAULED IN PRE-METRO TILTS

Led by quarterback Ronnie Iapala, Troy's gridmen opened what they hoped would be a successful season with a 19-6 clubbing of the Morse Tigers. Junior tailback Billy Daniels helped to spark the offense to well over the 300 yard mark with 95 yards rushing and two touchdowns.

Keeping their winning way, Troy overpowered a tough Granite Hills squad 18-13 on the Eagles' home field. The Trojans were again led by Iapala and Daniels with newcomer Gene Harvey, a senior playing in his first game of high school football, displaying fine early-season potential.

TROY BOWS TO LANCERS

In their first league encounter, the terrific Trojans suffered their first loss to Hilltop High on the Lancers home field. Although Troy was first to score on a strike from quarterback Ronnie Iapala to tailback Billy Daniels, they were succumbed by the massive Lancer defensive wall. Trailing 27-6 at halftime, the Trojan warriors tried a comeback rally on the passing arm of Iapala and the receiving abilities of Gene Harvey, but fell short at the final gun 33-18.

TROY MANGLES DEVILS

Quarterback Iapala again unleashed a devastating passing attack, but this time it met with victory as he led Troy's warriors to their third win against one loss. Sweetwater's Red Devils met defeat on our home field as the Trojan defense caused fumbles and the offense pounded out points. Proving they were second best to no one, Iapala passed for two touchdowns, Daniels ran for one, and defensive tackle Ruben Guevara took a hand off from the Devil's quarterback for an additional score. Final tally: Castle Park 26, Sweetwater 0.

TROJANS OVERPOWER BARONS

Building an offensive onslaught on the passing of Ronnie Iapala, the receiving of Gene Harvey and Gary Hargrave, and the powerful running of backs Andy and Jimmy Sanchez, Ira Porter, and Billy Daniels, the terrific Trojans annihilated the Barons 51-7 to cap Troy's Homecoming festivities. Jumping to an early lead, Troy was in command all the way. The Big Red Team's goal was crossed only once when the Baron's John Buttita broke through the defensive phalanx.

TROJANS MANGLE SPARTANS

Capitalizing on a pair of blocked punts recovered in the end zone by Trojans Ronnie Iapala and John Lorson, Castle Park ripped the favored Spartans of Chula Vista 26-14 to stay in contention for the league title. Iapala also connected on touchdown passes to Billy Daniels and Gene Harvey. The terrific Trojan defense was at its high-polished best as it spent an enjoyable evening controlling the league's leading scorer in the Spartan's Frank Endo and chasing the Spartans highly-touted quarterback around the backfield.

TROJANS SINK ISLANDERS

Starting slowly, Troy's warriors sunk the Islanders 32-7. Scoring early on a blocked punt, the Trojans slipped to a 7-6 deficit when Coronado's quarterback flipped a long touchdown "bomb". Shifting into high gear, Ronnie Iapala started to pick the Islander secondary to shreds with his usual passing display. Iapala, the undisputed leader, had such followers as Billy Daniels, who scored one touchdown, and Gene Harvey, who scored two. TROJANS STOPPED BY COLTS

After an injury to starting quarterback Ron Iapala, the Trojan warriors reorganized their backfield to compensate for his absence and entered the lists against the Crawford Colts in a non-league encounter. Although the terrific Trojans jumped to an early 6-0 lead, they were unable to maintain their momentum and ended the rough-and-tough first half on the bottom end of a 13-12 score. During the second half, the slippery field worked to the advantage of the powerful running of the colts and turned the score into a lop-sided 48-12. BUT IT WAS NON-LEAGUE. Troy still had a chance for a share of the Metro prizes.

MARINERS HARPOON TROY'S TITLE HOPES

As the gun sounded ending the MV-CP tilt, time ran out for the terrific Trojans and with it hopes for at least a portion of the Metro Crown. Injured Ron Iapala, whom coaches considered the league's best, watched from the sidelines as Sandy Cushman, formerly varsity fullback, gallantly filled in at the QB spot. However, it was evident that the defense thrown up by the Mariners was too tough for consistent penetration. The final gun found Troy on the short end of the 18-13 score in the do-or-die battle. It was a scramble all the way--a scramble marked by bad breaks and several penalties--penalties which hurt like the one that recalled a Trojan TD.

'68 CAGE SQUAD HAS GREAT YEAR

Although pre-season underdogs, the terrific Trojans ended their court battles with a fantastic 24-5 record. In their brilliant fight for non-league, Metro and CIF crowns, they picked up a FIRST in the Kiwanis Tournament with an upset win over Chula Vista and a THIRD in the University Tournament, losing only to Lincoln, the 9th best team in the county, in a preliminary contest.

In Metro competition, the terrific squad bowed twice to Chula Vista, number 2 in the county, and once to Hilltop, number 5 in the county, although dumping the Lancers in 3 out of 4 meetings. This was accomplished while playing the first 13 games without Ron Iapala, the Summer League's most valuable player, and with Ron, Gene Harvey, Chris Anderson, and Ray Chavarria missing games with injuries or illness -- particularly disasterous in the last six season encounters when close ball games were deciding Metro and CIF standings.

In CIF playoffs, Troy was paired with Mount Miguel, the number 1 team in the county and the number 2 team in the State, and, although defeated, was the only team to force the Matadors out of their devastating press.

FIGHTING CAGERS SET NEW RECORDS

The Terrific Trojans bested the previous season record of 23 wins 7 losses by chalking up 24 wins to 5 defeats. They also set a new school record of most points in one game when they chucked in 83 counter against Coronado. The season total point record of 1901 points in 29 games also topped the 1963-64 record of 1600 points in 30 games and the 65.5 point average per game bettered the '63-64 average of 53.3.

Individually, Delgadillo with 388 rebounds broke John Jackson's previous record of 326, while Chris Anderson tied his brother George's record of 74 assists. Leading scorer for the year was Gene Harvey with 408 in 28 games, followed by Anderson with 377 in 28 games, Delgadillo with 368 in 29 games, Chavarria with 377 in 28 games and Sablan with 298 in 29 games. From the floor Chris Anderson led with 149/310 for 47% followed by Delgadillo with 142/300 for 47%, Harvey with 175/392 for 45%, Chavarria with 161/376 for 42% and Sablan with 80/194 for 41%. As a team, the squad mustered an enviable 43% record from the floor. In free throws, of the top 7 members all but one shot above 65% with Anderson leading with 85/122 for 69%. As a team, the squad mustered an excellent 62% from the free toss line.

Working for the future, the Junior Varsity and Sophomore basketball squads made bright showings in every game. All of those participating were looking to fill the position and, hopefully, the shoes of a senior on the Varsity this year. Keeping up with the idea of high school sports, they not only learned the fundamentals of basketball, but also true sportsmanship and the Trojan tradition of winning. Showing high potential were Tom Jacobs and Bob Lucero on the JV squad and Lino Iulu on the Sophomore squad.

TROY'S GRAPPLERS SHARE METRO CROWN

Individually posting a nearly-unanimous winning record, the tough Trojan wrestling squad, led by John Hardy, with a 19-0 record, including 11 straight pins, Thom Bushhorn, with a 14-2 record, and Steve Domasig, with a 10-2 record, ended the season 10-2 in dual matches, losing only to Helix and Mar Vista. In spite of a preponderance of sophomores at the lower weights, they ended the Metro League contests with only one loss, thus breaking a 7-year strangle hold on the Metro title held by the Chula Vista Spartans.

John Hardy, a junior, was the year's top grappler. At the Holtville tournament, in a field of about 200, he picked up the 145 pound laurels with 4 straight pins and came out carrying a trophy for the most pins and the Outstanding Wrestler Award.

With John Hardy, Steve Domasig, Jim Shaeffer, and Joe Valdivia returning to the Mat Wars, along with some real power moving up from the JV, next year's squad is certain to be "TOUGH."

JV MATMEN SHARE TITLE

The fighting JV, never scoring under 24 points in any match, posted a 10-1-1 record for the season. Beaten only by Helix and tying the much-vaunted Spartans, they ended the Mat Wars as Metro League Co-Champions. Fine potential was seen in the work of Mike Gidney, with his 10-0 record, including 6 pins, Dow Becker, unbeaten and tied once, Terry Griffith, with 8 wins and no losses, and Jesse Romero, with his 7-1 record, including 6 pins. Other outstanding wrestlers were Richard White (6-2), Norman Kirk (6-4), Andy Sanchez (8-4), and Mitch Vandergriff. These grapplers pose a real threat to Troy's future mat adversaries.

THINCLADS SINK SPIKES INTO METRO TURF

Sparked by the stellar efforts of sprinters Gary Hargraves, Joe Rivas and Steve West, shot-putter Bill Hronek, pole vaulter Dan Willard, distance runner Eddie Diaz, hurdlers Billy Daniels and Nick Sapanza, high jumper Bill Spencer and middle distance men George Carson, Ken Gunn and Fred Medrano, the 1968 Track Team, under the dedicated coaching of head mentor Gray Elliott and his assistant Nate Wallace, posted new records in track and field competition. The thinclads' early season efforts were highlighted by a THIRD in the JC Relays and an upset win over Sweetwater, both firsts in Trojan track history. The future looks even brighter since most of the varsity squad will be returning to the cinders next year where they will be backed up by fine JV performers like sprinter Arnold Comeaux, pole vaulter Steve Underly, middle distance runner Louis Gaona, and long jumper Ralph Buna.

GOLF SQUAD FINDS GREEN

Fighting general lack of interest, Coach Gil Warren struggled to establish golf as a competitive sport on the Trojan campus. Building on the leadership of "long ball hitter" Senior Bill Lee, who has the potential of shooting in the 70's and on an enthusiastic but inexperienced group of sophomores, particularly the swinging clubs of Richard White and Dan Roberts, he brought the squad a long way toward his goal of offering real competition to schools like Coronado and Hilltop.

Coach Warren gives Paul Lorenz and Bill Lee instruction on the use of woods.

TROJAN BATS SET METRO BEAT

From early season performance it was clear that the 1968 Varsity Baseball Squad was the best balanced nine fielded in Troy's short history.

Standouts on the mound were senior John Preston who at presstime had already authored two no hitters, a 6-0 drubbing of El Cajon and an 8-0 rout of Sweetwater, and junior Hector Cebreros who, as a sophomore, picked up three of the four JV wins of the 1967 season. At the plate, singing bats of Hector Cebreros, Ron Iapala, Bill Preston and Mike Floyd evidenced Troy's growing strength in the hitting department.

With power demonstrated in two of the three areas necessary for a successful season, only the third necessary element -- fielding -- posed a big early-season question mark. As the defense, anchored around the Sanchez brothers in the infield and Gene Harvey in the outfield, gelled Troy again proved to be a major Metro diamond threat.

NOVICE HORSEHIDERS SHOW DIAMOND SKILLS

Although lacking in depth, Troy's JV hardballers performed gallantly in league and non-league diamond duels.

Starting pitchers Randy Lueck, Steve Jones and Bob Amador, occasionally relieved by Tony Barragan, Steve Riley or Greg Rice, were supported by a good defensive infield built around the outstanding catching of Steve Holt and Mike Coleman and the good gloves of First Baseman Chuck Cannon, Second Baseman Pablo Amador, Shortstop Mat Johnson, and Third Basemen Steve Jones and Gilbert Castello. Exceptional outfield records were turned in by John Bryant, Steve Riley, Bob Amador, Raul Mora, and Brad Pike. With Mat Johnson, John Bryant and Pablo Amador swinging their "big sticks" and other squad members sharpening their batting eye, Coach Wally Munden found cause for satisfaction. Returning Varsity Lettermen are on notice -- their positions will be hotly challenged by these "upstarts" next season.

MERMEN MAKE METRO SPLASH

Although boasting a Metro record that could be considered only adequate, Troy's Swimming Squad could point to a number of fine individual efforts and the development of a nucleus of aquatic competitors that will bring Troy real victories in future water wars.

Junior Mike Grunwald, generally conceded Troy's best all-around swimmer, could enter and place among the leaders in any event. His best efforts were in the 100 yd. butterfly in which he will have broken the 1:00 barrier by the time you read this. Pressing Grunwald's record was Mike Wade who broke the 1:10 mark in the 100 yd. breaststroke and earned CIF ranking.

Backing the two Mike's was a squad composed primarily of sophomores. Led by Bruce Wade, who should equal his brother Mike's record by the time he is a senior (100-yd. backstroke-1:18 and 100 yd. breaststroke-1:20), the group included Doug Glover (100 yd. breaststroke-1:20) and Jim Grace (50 yd. freestyle-25.2 and 100 yd. freestyle-1:03.1). According to Coach Tom Hoffman, this was the best group of neophyte mermen in Troy's aquatic history.

SOCCER -- It is a rough, fast, exciting game.

SOCCER TEAM MAKES DEBUT

Under the dynamic quidance of biology teacher Ernie Neveu, a long-time soccer buff, Castle Park took its first venture into competitive soccer. Although not an official Trojan team, all members of the mighty ATLASES that leaped unheralded into formal soccer league competition came from the classrooms of Castle Park High School

Team standouts were Humberto Sandoval, Juan Garcia, Mike Hernandez, and Alfredo Silvas. Humberto Sandoval and Juan Garcia, as halfbacks (a defensive position), hurled themselves into the fray with such determination and sangfroid that they ensured the team's placing high in league standings. As further evidence of the abilities in the novice squad, Wing Alfredo Silvas and Center-forward Mike Hernandez were selected for the San Diego Junior Soccer League's All-Star Team.

If the sport catches the spectator's interest, soccer matches may become as popular as football, basketball, or baseball. With the ATLASES and the TOROS on the playing fields one can expect SOCCER EXCITEMENT in '69.

CP NETMEN SHOW PROMISE

This year Troy fielded a 12-man playing team for the first time in Metro League tennis competition. Built around five returning varsity lettermen: Jack Pepiot, John Snyder, Steve Domasig and Craig Robinson who held down the singles spots, and Tom Campbell who headed the doubles contingent, the team also proved to be the strongest in our short history. The future looked even brighter as Tom Campbell, Joe Zullo and Steve Reay, although anchoring the doubles contingent, found their own and other doubles positions challenged by a strong group of inexperienced but hard-working sophomores: Greg Domasig, Jonathon Henry, Steve Martin, Mike Bogge, Butch Hynes, Jim Harbin, and Lamonte Thompson. Unexpected strength shown in the early-season lop-sided victory over always-tough Morse and Bonita Vista and the continued development of the squad's sophomores revealed a championship potential which could see fruition in a Metro Crown by season's end.

MARKSMEN THREATEN LEAGUE LEADERS

Under the hard-driving supervision of their new Commandant, 1stLt. Gray Elliott, the Trojan riflemen developed into a competitive force in the Southern Rifle Marksmanship League. With five members shooting in the high 170's and low 180's and with five of the top six marksmen coming back next year, the position of Chula Vista and Sweetwater as perennial tournament winners will be challenged and Trojans may find themselves in State competition as a team.

JUNIOR COUNCIL

This year's Junior Council has proven that through the experience of problem solving in high school government one can better understand what lies ahead when the members of the Class of 1969 take their places at the helm of our nation.

Working closely with the ASB officers and their Class Counselor, Mr. Dappert, they planned and executed those service and social activities which made the Junior Class's year at Troy such a memorable one.

JUNIORS WE DON'T WANT TO MISS, The following Juniors were not available when individual photographs were taken--FIRST ROW: Linda Magtoto, Karen McLain, Candice Hudson, Donna McGill, Carol McDaniels, Margaret Pojas, Alma Pimental, Velio Aguirre. SECOND ROW: Norma Navarro, Judy Bumgarner, Betty Goins, Luis DeMatteo, Debbie Burns, Connie Medina. THIRD ROW: Bruce Place, Jack Mosley, Louis Pfrimmer, Mike Gidney, Ricky Bersagel, Carlos Gonzales, Pete Hansen, Bill Johnson.

THE BEGINNING, AS THE PROVERB SAYS, IS HALF THE WHOLE. TO HAVE COMMENCED IS HALF THE DEED. THE HARDEST STEP IS OVER THE THRESHOLD, AND WE HAVE TAKEN IT. WE HAVE BEGUN.

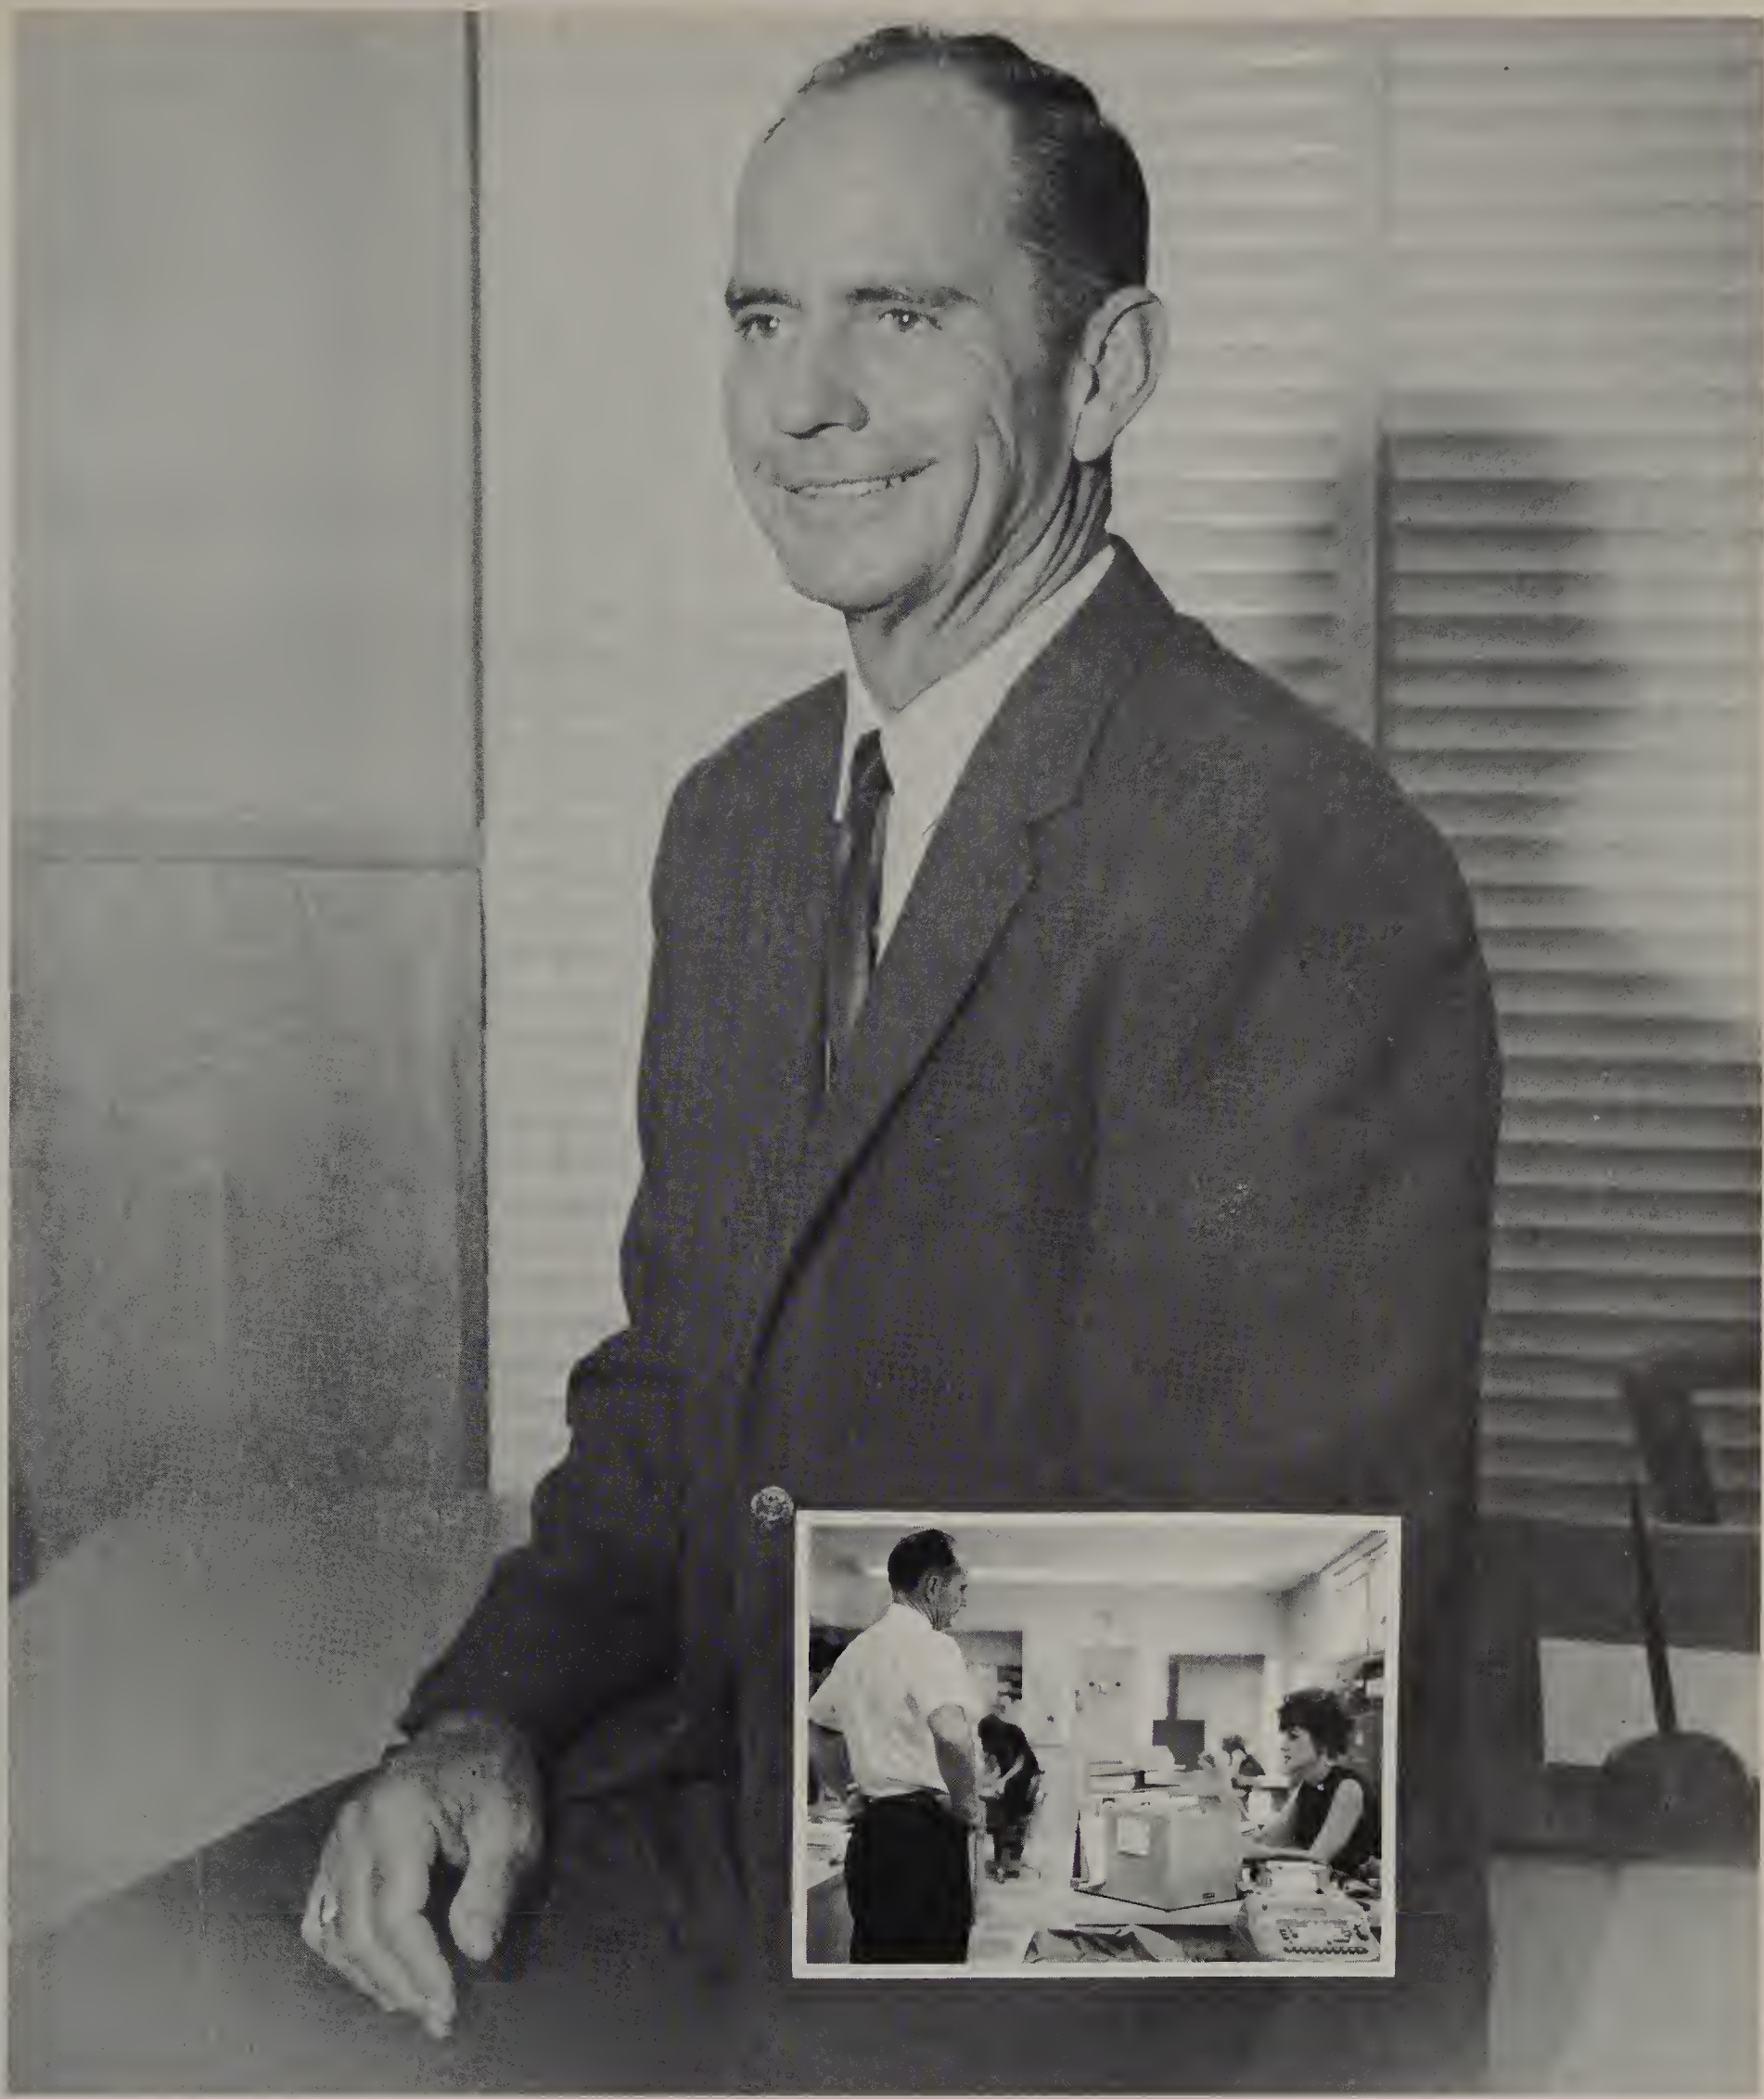
SUPERINTENDENT JOSEPH RINDONE

The administration, faculty, and students of Castle Park High School wish to extend to Mr. Joseph Rindone and the members of the Board of Trustees their appreciation for the endless hours of effort put forth to ensure that the educational standards in this district are as modern and advanced as possible.



PRINCIPAL RALPH A. SKILES

He led us toward these goals: (1) an unremitting attention to cultivating the intellect, (2) examining the cultural heritage won by past generations, (3) promoting a sense of values and a readiness for adult life, (4) fostering a willingness to understand people of different temperaments and backgrounds.

In pursuit of these goals under his dedicated leadership, Castle Park High School has become an education center whose operation and progress engages the joint participation of students, faculty, administration and, even more important, the entire community.

Girls - Marylou Goodell

VICE PRINCIPALS SERVE TROJANS

Mr. Bardot and Mrs. Goodell evidenced those characteristics of leadership and dedication which, coupled with a warm empathy for the students, won the respect and admiration of all Troy.

CLASS COUNSELORS GUIDE STUDENTS

The counselors of Castle Park have proven an invaluable asset in establishing Troy's goals and ideals. Their most demanding task is preparing students for the problems which they as adults will encounter in an ever-expanding and always changing world.

LIBRARIAN WILLIAM DARTON

"In Books lies the soul of the whole Past Time; the articulate audible voice of Past, when the body and the material substance of it has altogether vanished like a dream. All that Mankind has done, thought, gained or been: it is lying as in magic preservation in the pages of Books. They are the chosen possession of men."

Carlyle

. . . and Troy's books are guarded well by Mr. William Darton and his library aides.

FACULTY AND CURRICULUM

LANGUAGE ARTS

It is the goal of the Language Arts Department to shape students into "literate citizens". Recognizing the existance of individual differences, the department provides a wide range of curriculum offerings and corresponding learning experiences so as to satisfy individual needs and permit each student to achieve to his maximum ability. In practice, dedicated teachers lead young Trojans through a systematic development of essential skills in written and oral communication.

SPEECH

The Speech Department strives to prove the adage that there is something in the voice, the countenance, the bearing and the gestures of the speaker that fixes an impression on the mind deeper than even vigorous writing. The Department's success can be found in recognition won by Trojan Speech Team members in hotly contested tournaments.

Linda J. Schlechte

Martin critiques Mila's 0.0.

Among those bringing honors to Troy in forensic competition were: RUDY GONZALES (4th-Impromptu, Palomar Novice); MARTY MAYER (3rd-Extemporaneous , San Diego State, and 3rd-Extemporaneous, California Western); CORA MANESE (1st-Oratorical Analysis, California Western, and 1st-Original Oratory, Claremont Men's College); MILA SHENOY (3rd-Original Oratory, California Western); and DICK DAVIS (1st-Lion's Club Speech Contest).

DRAMATICS

Insights are found in role playing.

Mary C. Bouley

After a year under the dedicated coaching of Mrs. Mary Bouley, dramatics students will tell you that drama, like poetry and fiction, is an art of words -- words used to make sense out of the myriad perplexities that befall man. They know of what they speak. They have passed through a series of ever-expanding experiences through which they came to appreciate the theater as an art form. More important, however, is that, while enjoying every moment of their classroom work, they developed an empathy with all mankind and found new ways to express how men and women think and feel.

ARTS AND CRAFTS

Art provides the necessary creative experiences that give life meaning in our ever-changing technological world - a world in which we find it ever more difficult to function as intellectual and emotional beings. The Art Department, recognizing this basic need for creative experiences for all students, provides a sequence of courses evolving around exploration of various art media and culminating in development of special appreciations, talents, and skills that will last a lifetime.

MUSIC

VOCAL AND INSTRUMENTAL

Mr. Michael Luzak faced two distinct and inter-related problems in supervising the music program at CPHS. He sought to discover and develop the special talents of emerging professional musicians. At the same time, he sought to nurture and encourage amateurs in music who will constitute the sensitive and appreciative audiences of tomorrow. The extent to which this dual goal was achieved can be seen in the tremendous force that music represents in the total Trojan environment.

SCIENCE

Foundation training in science is necessary not only for the future research scientist, but as a liberal education for the future average citizen of a country that spends five billion dollars a year on space. Acknowledging this, Troy's Science Department has accepted a particular obligation to provide understanding of the basic core of all the sciences through course offerings in psychology, biology, chemistry, physics, and earth science.

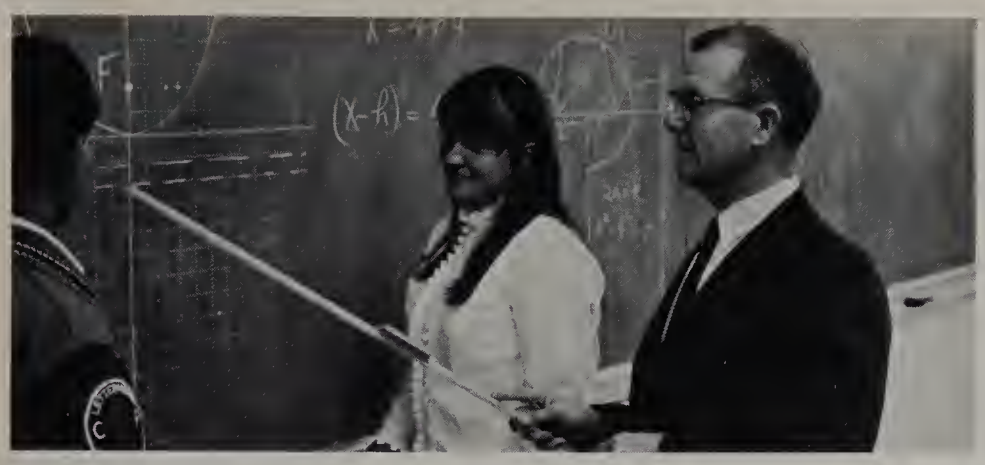
MATHEMATICS

Castle Park High School's Mathematics Department operates on the principle that the process of learning mathematics is more important than course content, and that mathematics is a subject discipline that should grow, not one that should be memorized or discovered. The curriculum provides for a wide range of meaningful, relevant course offerings designed to meet the needs of the future mathematician, engineer, physicist, and statistician, but more importantly, of every articulate citizen.



Mastering a mathematical concept begins with discussion. . .

SOCIAL STUDIES

"I know no safe depository of the ultimate powers of society but the people themselves; and if we think them not enlightened enough to exercise their control with a wholesome discretion, the remedy is not to take from them, but to inform their discretion by education." These words are even more meaningful today than they were when spoken by Thomas Jefferson one hundred and fifty years ago. In this light, the Social Studies Department accepts the challenge to develop citizens who know enough and care enough to actively join in the struggle for the survival of the ideas for which our nations stands.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Within the framework of the comprehensive curriculum, the Industrial Arts offerings include drafting, electronics, wood and metal working, and, this year, for the first time, auto mechanics. These courses are designed to realistically acquaint young men with job requirements and provide experience arranged so that each student progresses as far and as fast as he is able in correctly developing skills that will last a lifetime.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Whether we like it or not, we face an inescapable fact that this is one world, that man's inventive genius has made our world almost a neighborhood, and that our peace and security is directly bound up with events occuring anywhere on the globe. To communicate effectively with our neighbors it is essential that we speak, read, and write in their languages. Trojans, through the study of Latin, German, French, and Spanish, not only develop language fluency but, through correlated emphasis on the related civilizations, develop insights into the cultural foundations of America and better understanding of other peoples and their cultural environments.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

It is the goal of the Business Education Department to equip both the terminal and the college-bound student with the necessary skills to perform the stenographic, clerical, and bookkeeping tasks and control and operate the sophisticated machines that will confront him in the world of business. Hundreds of Trojan graduates attest to the effectiveness of the program, and even more important the dedicated teachers who bring life to it, through their mastery of advanced skills and development of good work habits evidenced by their meeting the stringent requirements of business vocations in the community or in their part-time and summer employment financing further education.

HOMEMAKING

Home Economics or Homemaking at Castle Park High School is much more than meal management and clothing construction or selection. Students study every aspect of home life, from efficient kitchen planning to the relation of the family to the community. Through their studies, they establish foundations of knowledge and skills and acquire values of family relationships which are basic to the health, happiness, security, and general well-being of the family and its members.

"Take one pulverized cumquat, a dash of oregano . . ."

"Who said, 'cleaning up can be fun'?"

CLOTHING is the traumatic experience when you face a facing . . .

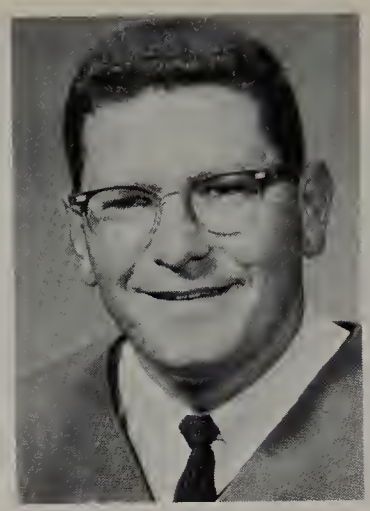
. . . or stand for a fitting.

It is tedious hand work . . .

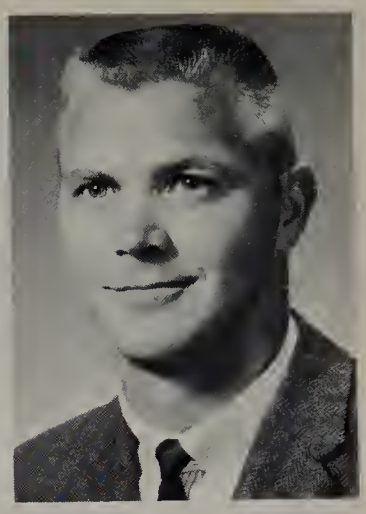
. . . and final inspection and grading by Mrs. Ketterer.

BOYS' P.E.

Agreeing that there are relatively few great "natural" athletes and that the degree of athletic success depends on training and mental attitude, Troy's coaches joined forces in an all-out effort to improve the physical fitness of CPHS students. In doing this, they dispelled the myth that physical fitness could be achieved by anything but hard work and yet made conditioning exercises interesting. Their success in putting maximum "fun" into exercise sessions while promoting realistic goals in sports activities is best exemplified by this year's adoption of the EXER-GENIE--the equipment used by the Chargers, Packers and other professional football teams in their training programs.



Vern E. Brizendine

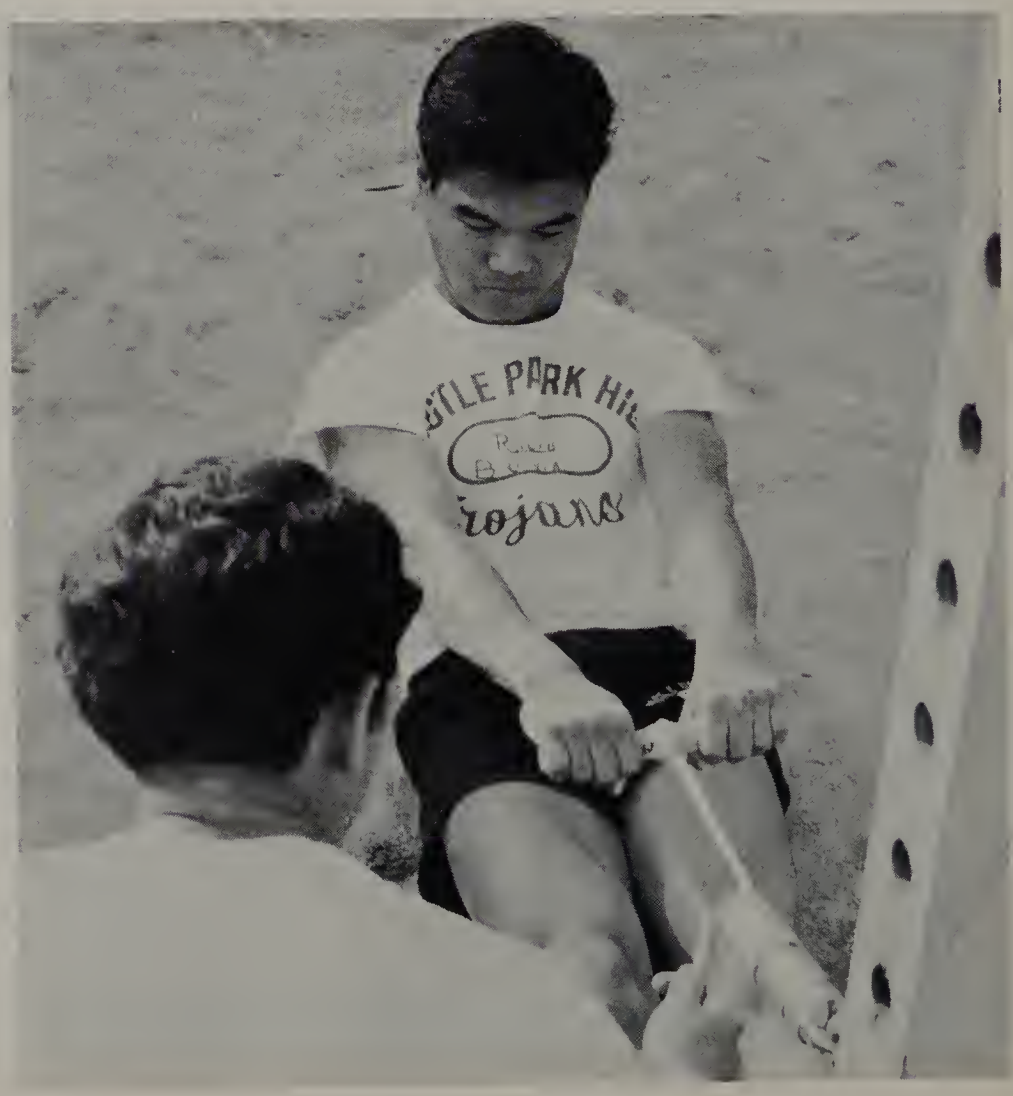


Gilbert R. Warren

WHO CAN FORGET THE EXERGENIE . . . and the "Big Four"

. . . or the "Sprint Get-off"

. . . or the "Lat Pull"



. . . or the "Row Boat"?

GIRLS' P.E.

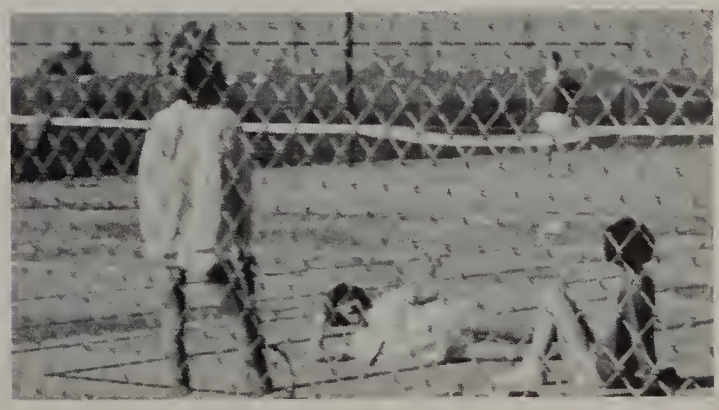
As with the boys, in addition to developing academic and technical skills, continous consideration must be given to the physical, mental, emotional, and social needs of girls. Meeting this responsibility, Troy's Girls' Physical Education Department continued its strong, progressive program. Adapting procedures and techniques to serve individual needs, resourceful teachers gave special consideration to those group and individual sports which provided necessary exercise while developing skillful use of arms and legs, coordination, strength, speed, endurance, quick thinking, good team spirit, self control, sportsmanship, poise, and self-confidence.

Time out for a "fast" game of volleyball . . .

". . . if they get the ball over the net."

Troy's svelt Dianas aim at and hit their marks.

No I'm not blind, there's sand in my eye.



"Gosh, I'm tired!"

292nd BATTALION GUARDS RAMPARTS

Under the dedicated direction of First Lieutenant Gray Elliot, in his first year as Commandant of Cadets, the Cadet Corps program provided training in rifle marksmanship, map reading, first aid, personal hygiene, sanitation, and group safety--subjects of value both to the individual Cadet in his role as a civilian and his possible future role as a member of the armed forces.

FIRST PLATOON: Sgt. Wayne Cockrell, NCO i/c. First Rank: Cpl Jeff Freeby, Robert Williams, Robert Eck, Robert Salgrado. Second Rank: CFC Robert Valerio, Nathan Bain, Gary Parodes. Third Rank: Cpl Dan Rivera.

Executive Officer SFC Richard Knighton, Commandant 1stLt Gray Elliott and Commanding Officer 2ndLt Gary Koester discuss week's training schedule.

SECOND PLATOON: Sgt. Ron Strohmer, NCO i/c. First Rank: Sgt. Neil Azuma, Tim Hilliard, Alfredo Silvas, Richard Connell, Ramey Cabadong, Don Hunt. Second Rank: Cpl Miles D'Asaro, Wilkie Ross, Harry Kira, Fred Vosholl, Mark Gonsalves.

"What is your Fifth General Order?"

THIS IS TROJAN COUNTRY

Through their support of the 1968 Speculum, the business community joins other CPHS Boosters in saluting Trojan accomplishments. In appreciation, all Trojans return the salute.

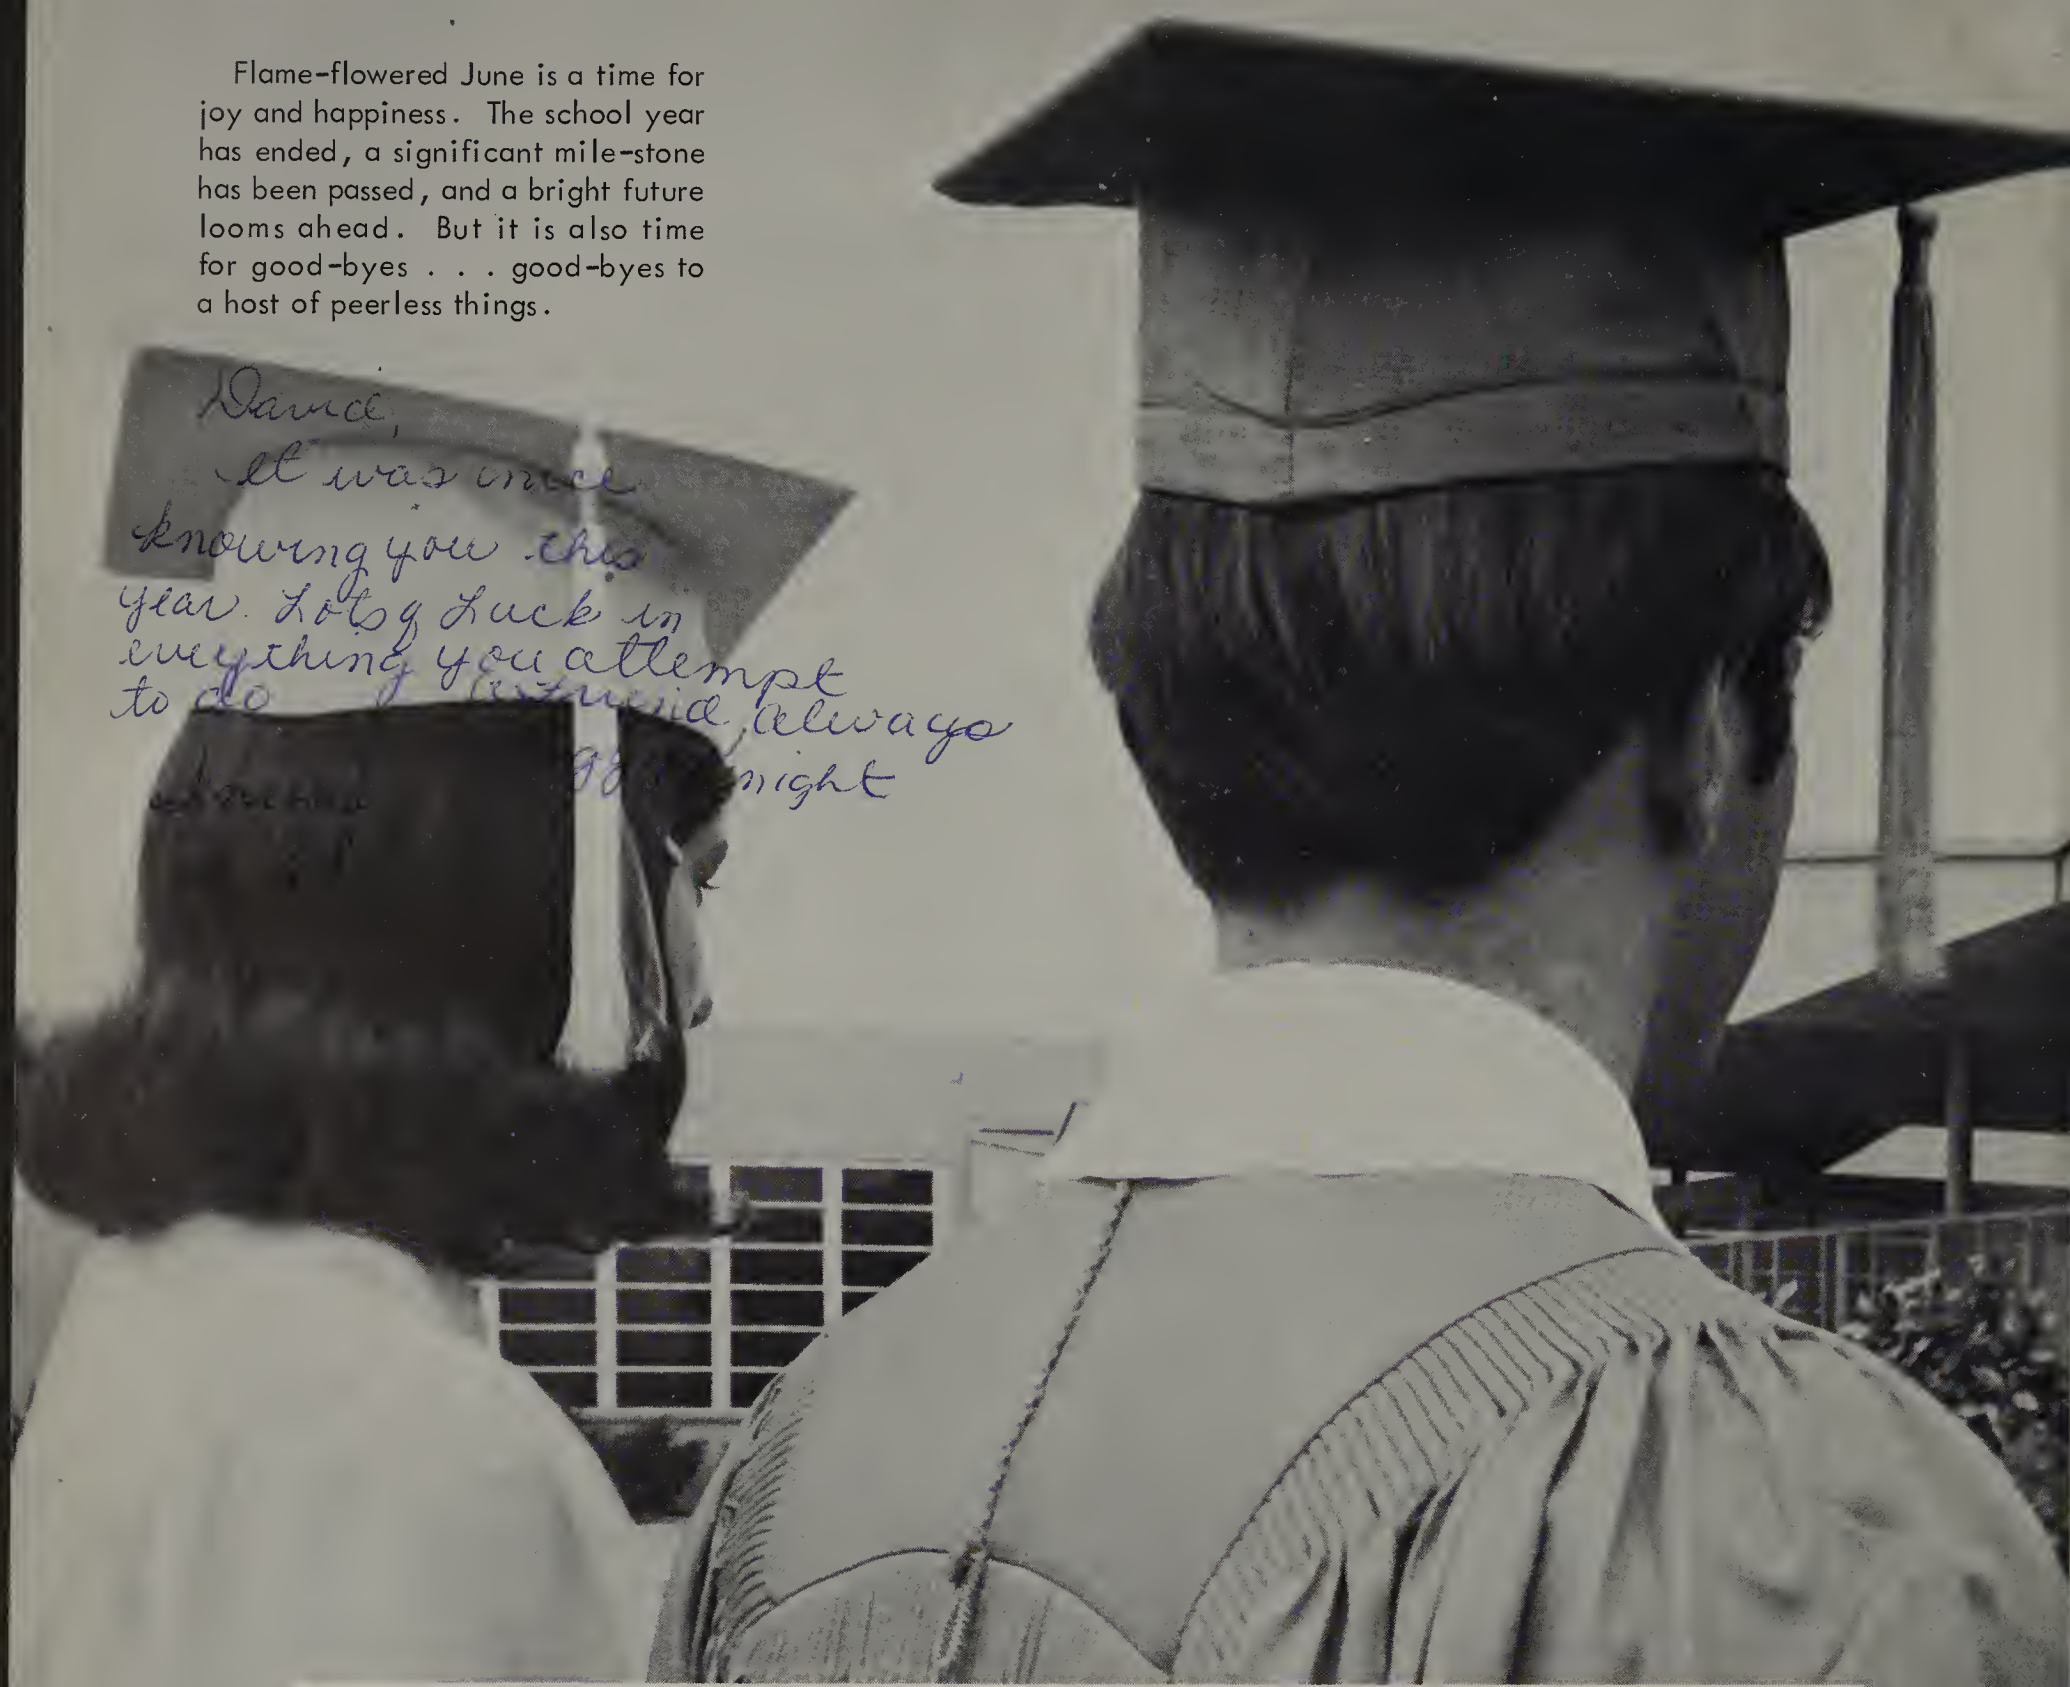
EPILOGUE

Flame-flowered June is a time for joy and happiness. The school year has ended, a significant mile-stone has been passed, and a bright future looms ahead. But it is also time for good-byes . . . good-byes to a host of peerless things.



Symbolically, Kathy Looney and Wayne Warren, with poignant nostalgia, look back at Castle Park High School and recall their wonderful year at Troy. How flashed the year along. How swift the moments.

The wave that has passed cannot be recalled, nor the hour that has gone be returned. Yet, through the time-stopped magic of the SPECULUM, it is our hope that you will return again and again to the work, the gaiety, the frustrations, the comradeships, the heartaches, and the joys of that golden drop of time.

Your smiles in such reflections will be all the compensation we need for the hours of arduous labor spent in planning the book, the dreary midnight and weekend sessions spent poring over copy or struggling to find the exact word to complete a caption, and the tedious and grueling toil with camera and darkroom alchemy necessary to bring the book to fruition.

In our own reflections we find a need to express our heartfelt appreciation for the tremendous support we have received from administration, faculty, student body and the community during the hectic months spent in preparation of this book. To single out each contributing individual would be impossible, but we would be remiss if we did not acknowledge a special debt of gratitude to Art Teacher Enid Miller, Tribune of Art Vickie Jones, and their creative assistants Terry Palau, Suzie Schramm and Rita Ruble for their efforts in providing the silk-screened end sheets, and to our photographer James Warren Hunt whose vital interest in our progress is all that has made this yearbook possible.
